Patriotic picnic promises fun for Putnam County Seniors

Seniors to gather again this spring for annual Putnam County Senior Picnic

HURRICANE, WV – May 12, 2017 – Putnam County residents age 60+ along with their friends and families are invited to report for this year's Putnam County Senior Picnic. Scheduled for May 25th, 2017 from 10:00 AM to 2:00 PM, the picnic will be held at Waves of Fun Park on Valley Park Drive in Hurricane, WV.

This year's picnic theme is Patriotic and will feature all American amusements including photo booths, corn hole, door prizes, vendor booths, and live music by Mountain Grass! The menu will include American favorites like Apple Pie, Hamburgers, Lemonade, and more!

The Putnam County Senior Picnic is a time honored tradition reaching back decades, but this year marks the picnic's 8th consecutive year being sponsored by the City of Hurricane, and organized by Putnam County Aging Program. Door prizes are generously donated by local businesses and participating vendors.

Last year's picnic was attended by nearly 300 people, with Marcia Dawn Meeks commenting, "[that] was the best picnic I have attended ... Looking forward to [this] year." We look forward to seeing Putnam County seniors out in force again this year!

The senior picnic is sponsored by the City of Hurricane and organized by Putnam County Aging Program.
