Putnam County residents invited to meet candidates

Opportunity to meet candidates running for local, state, and national offices

SAINT ALBANS, WV – April 15, 2016 – Residents of Putnam County are encouraged to attend a nonpartisan ‘Meet the Candidates’ event being held at each of Putnam county’s senior center locations this month.

Each event will begin at 10:30 am and last one hour. The John C Henson Center located at 2800 Putnam Avenue in Hurricane, WV will be holding their event on Tuesday, April 19th. After that, the Hometown Senior Center at 40 1st Avenue North in Hometown, WV will be holding theirs on Wednesday, April 27th. The Buffalo Senior Center at 48 Wrights Lane in Buffalo, WV will then be holding their event on Friday, April 29th.

All county level candidates vying for offices in Putnam County have been invited including County Commissioner, County Clerk, Sheriff, and all others. Candidates running for state and national level offices have also been invited. All candidates will be introduced and given an equal opportunity to speak and network with the public.

Light refreshments will be served during the event, and lunch will be served directly following each event.

Putnam County Aging Program is a nonprofit organization serving the aged and disabled of central West Virginia. The agency has been providing services including in home care, nutrition, transportation, and more to seniors in communities across central West Virginia for over 35 years.
